

INCLUSIVE WEBSITE EXPERIENCE

Lake-Sumter State College is committed to ensuring that all students and visitors, including persons with disabilities, are able to access and use all of our services, programs and activities. We recognize that many individuals are increasingly using our website to access information and obtain services.

We understand that website users who have disabilities may use the website with the assistance of technology, including screen readers, captioning, transcripts, and other auxiliary aids and services. We are committed to providing all website users with information about our services and alternative ways we can offer these services.

Lake-Sumter State College is committed to making our websites accessible to all audiences. We are continually seeking solutions to improve LSSC.edu. Our website offers a wide range of information, and we recognize that for users with disabilities, some material on our site may pose challenges. If there are changes we can make to our website to make it easier to use, or if you encounter material or services that you cannot access, please let us know. Your feedback helps us to identify areas where we can improve.

We strive to ensure that our website will comply with Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) put forth by the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C), but recognize that alternatives to using the website should be available in the event that a user with a disability encounters a problem using our website.

If you are unable to access information or documents posted on this website, please send us an email at websupport@lssc.edu with as much of the following information as possible:

- x Your name
- x Your phone number
- x Your email address
- x The date and time you encountered the problem
- x The web page or address where the problem occurred
- x What occurred or what you were unable to do
- x Any error messages you received.

MORNING SESSIONS

10:00 t 10:45 AM Option 1: Library Orientation

Presenters: Andrew Dail, Reference Librarian, Lake Sumter State College

Dr. Matthew Drum, Instructor of Biological Sciences, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description This session will assist you with how to orient your students to library resources. You will learn how to best incorporate sources and services of the LSSC Library system. Learn what sources the library has to offer you and your instruction. There will be updates on new services, existing, and updates on computing services. There will also be demos of sites, databases, LibAnswers, and other resources the Library offers.

10:00 t 10:45 AM Option 2 Citation Tips, Tricks and Techniques

Presenters: Ana Diamand, Staff Librarian, Lake Sumter State College

Dr. Michele Ruden, Instructor of English, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description This is an active workshop of best tips, tricks and methods used by LSSC faculty to assist struggling students with citations. Learn what others are doing to support their student with citations and apply those techniques to any style you teach.

10:45 t 11:45 AM MLA 8th edition t The Essential Basics

Presenters: Kevin Arms, Assistant Librarian, Lake Sumter State College

Kristen Chancey, Assistant Professor of English, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description > š [• ()] š Keep Up with all the changes in life? This is especially true when it comes to the fundamentals of MLA 8th edition citation. Many of us require it in our courses, but how well do we really know this new version of the style? Join Librarian Kevin Arms as he talks about the essential components of MLA style, including formatting, citation requirements, and what may have changed since the last time you had to write a major paper in this style. In addition, Kevin will discuss library resources that can help students (and you!) get a better handle on the requirements for this important academic foundation.

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

1:00 t 2:00 pm Option 1 Reinforcing Citation Fundamentals using Library Guides in Canvas

Presenters: Kevin Arms, Assistant Librarian, Lake Sumter State College
Kristen Chancey, Assistant Professor of English, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description: Reinforcing Citation styles for students can be challenging, but at LSSC Libraries we have made it much easier for you to give students the citation help they need, when they need it. Learn how to use library resources directly in Canvas, including linking critical citation style guides that have been designed to show students the commonalities between citations in a format, templates for citing common items, and resources that can help your students present their best foot forward on formal academic papers. The presentation will include an exploration of the multitude of resources available for use in Canvas from your LSSC Libraries, as well as options to create entirely new sets of resources that are targeted to your specific courses.

1:00 t 2:00 pm Option 2 Crafting a Research Assignment: The Good, the Bad, and the Confusing

Presenters: Nora Rackley, Reference Librarian, Lake Sumter State College
Jacklyn Pierce, Assistant Professor of English, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description: This is a working workshop to help faculty learn how to create a clear and concise library research assignment. Participants will be presented with a difficult assignment, to correct the directions. This will include information about common language and terminology to help unify and clarify assignments.

2:00 t 2:45 pm Option 1: Misinformation

Presenters: Andrew Dail, Reference Librarian, Lake Sumter State College
Dr. Matthew Drum, Instructor of Biological Sciences, Lake Sumter State College

Session Description: With the availability of misinformation on the internet, this presentation will show how to spot misinformation, how to spot sites of misinformation, and sites that assist in research of the topic. This session will then show how to present this information to students and offer an open discussion on how to present and create assignments based on this topic.

2:00 to 2:45 pm Option 2 Information Literacy is More Than Research

Presenters: Nora Rackley, Reference Librarian, Sumter State College

Jacklyn Pierce, Assistant Professor of English, Sumter State College

Session Description: This presentation is about information literacy being more than research. According to ACRL, information literacy is the set of integrated abilities encompassing the reflective discovery of information, the understanding of how information is produced and valued, and the use of information in creating new knowledge and participating ethically in communities of learning. I will talk about how information literacy is taught in every discipline at the college.

3:00 to 4:00 pm: Implementing the Librarian Intervention Model in Your Classroom: Discussion and Q&A Session
